

Gloria

Nathan and Christy Nockels

Wish I could crash like the waves or turn like the autumn leaves
In effort to praise you
Wish I could smell like the forest, a fragrance lifting a mighty chorus
In effort to praise, In effort to praise You

Chorus:
But I'm such a limited creature
And my words can only paint so many pictures
But somewhere I think I've read that I am treasured over all creation
So I know that I must try (I must try)

Wish I could roll like the thunder - to leave the earth below in wonder
In effort to praise You
Wish I could fall like the summer rain
Every drop would sing your name
In effort to praise You, In effort to praise You

Chorus

Gloria, glory in the highest!
Forever I will hide myself in Thee
Oh gloria, glory in the highest!
Forever I will hide myself in Thee
Every breath that I breathe, every moment in my history
Is an effort to praise You, an effort to praise You Glory in the highest! Forever I will hide myself in Thee
Oh gloria, glory in excelsis deo, gloria - Gloria, gloria!
