"Ah, those were the good old days!" How many times have you heard that? Well, we are going to take a look at "the good old days" of the Andy Griffin show as a way to get us thinking and talking about the values and ideals of our culture and the Bible, as we strive to live out our Christian life today.

Coming in June

Pastor's Summer Reading Group

I invite you to join me in reading some great books this summer. We will start in June with my favorite Max Lucado book, When Jesus Calls Your Name. Then get together every one week to talk about what we are reading.
