Many parents and friends who just "stopped by" and tarried awhile during the week. And of course the "kids" who came and the parents & friends who brought them. I had written down, but don't think I included in my earlier email:

Especially, thanks to God for meeting all of our apprehensions with unexpected blessings, from the timely clearing of the skies for activities that "had to" be outdoors, to simply lifting our spirits and brightening our lives thru the joy of coming together as His children, in His name.
