

Come, Let Us Eat

625

WORDS: Sts. 1-3. Billema Kwilila, 1970; trans. by Margaret D. Miller;
st. 4, Gilbert E. Doan, 1972; alt. (1 Cor. 5:7-8)

Leader

1. Come, let us eat,
for now the feast is spread.

St. 4 © 1972 Contemporary Worship 4: Hymns for Baptism and Communion; trans. sts. 1-3 by permission of Lutheran World Federation

All

Come, let us eat,
for now the feast is spread.

Leader

Our Lord's body
let us take together.

All

Our Lord's body
let us take together.

Leader

2. Come, let us drink, for now the wine is poured.

All

Come, let us drink, for now the wine is poured.

Leader

Jesus' blood poured let us drink together.

All

Jesus' blood poured let us drink together.

Leader

3. In his presence
now we meet and rest,

All

In his presence
now we meet and rest.

Leader

In the presence
of our Lord we gather.

All

In the presence
of our Lord we gather.

Leader

4. Rise, then, to spread abroad God's mighty Word.

All

Rise, then, to spread abroad God's mighty Word.

Leader

Jesus risen will bring in the kingdom.

All

Jesus risen will bring in the kingdom.